

COMPATIBILITY

This book is about love, human compatibility and marriage. It's been said that the most important decision you will ever make is the decision you make to marry. Current statistics tell us that the success rate for marriage is 50/50. That means that half of all marriages fail. That doesn't sound like very good odds, and this fact alone could influence someone not to marry. This manuscript uses the little known and overlooked fact from Astrology that....
